

Man, guilty of assault, is charged with rape

MAY 13 1982

An Oakland man was charged with attempted rape and robbery of a woman, police said Wednesday, four days after he pleaded guilty to assaulting another woman.

Sonny Ray Hardaway, 21, was captured in the latest incident by two men who heard the victim's screams and chased Hardaway, police said.

Sgt. Frank Moschetti said Wednesday an 18-year-old woman was walking in the 3000 block of Richmond Avenue just after 10 p.m. Saturday. She was pulled into a garage by a man who robbed her of $110 in jewelery and tried to rip off her clothes.

Her screams attracted Carleton Brown, 24, and Carl Lockett, 30, brothers-in-law who were watching television at a nearby home, Moschetti said.

They were able to capture the man, identified as Hardaway, a short distance from the site of the alleged attack.

Moschetti said Hardaway and his brother, Donny, were both arrested in January and charged with raping another woman.

Donny Hardaway is still awaiting trial in that case. Sonny Hardaway pleaded guilty May 4 to a reduced charge of felony assault in Superior Court and was freed on $10,000 bail pending sentencing June 23.
